Miss NSW confirmed as compere

Reigning Miss NSW Sabrina Houssami has been confirmed as compere of The Western Spectacular – the distant beat.

Ms Houssami, 19, will bring a touch of glamour to the exciting event which involves 1200 students from across the Western NSW Region.

A second year University of Sydney Liberal Studies student (English Honors & Psychology), Sabrina is actively involved in public speaking and was a champion debater in her final year at school.

Since winning her Miss NSW title she has been kept busy with appearances around the state which have included celebrity debates, high profile fashion shows and charity events for a wide range of causes.

Sabrina comes from a multi-cultural background with a Lebanese father and Indian mother and says she is looking forward to visiting Dubbo and interacting with students, teachers and parents from across the region.

"I am extremely excited about my visit to Dubbo, which is an area of my country I am yet to encounter," she said.

"I know that I will be proud of what I find there, as I am going to be fortunate enough to interact with the wonderful youth that will be part of The Western Spectacular. I am looking forward to seeing great talent, great minds, and great futures in these kids."

Ends.
